

ALBO KALI SILAT

WARREN BUDOKAN PRESENTS

A law enforcement training seminar featuring concepts from the Southeast Asian Martial Art, Albo Kali Silat. This rarely seen art encompasses impact weapon, knife, and empty hand techniques and was featured in the February 2009 issue of Black Belt Magazine.

Topics to be covered by Tuhan Holloway in this seminar include:

- Use of force continuum
- Countering common empty handed attacks
- Basic knife attacks and realistic defenses
- Impact weapon/baton, blade, and firearm retention and disarming
- Not merely surviving but dominating a weapon based street attack

Jon Holloway, head of Albo Kali Silat, is a law enforcement officer with 17 years of experience. Holloway has been a municipal police officer, firearms instructor, instructor in officer survival, detective, sergeant, federal Special Agent, federal SWAT operator, and currently is a Supervisory Special Agent for a federal law enforcement agency. He holds the rank of Tuhan, or Master Instructor, in Albo Kali Silat.

Saturday, May 9, 2009 -- 8:30 AM through 5:00 PM

Location: Academy of the Arts and Humanities
261 Elm Road NE
Warren, Ohio 44483

Cost: Preregistration $45 (Preregistration ends April 25, 2009)
Late Registration $55

The seminar is limited to 25 students. The seminar is open to current and honorably retired law enforcement officers only. Officers should bring duty belts and gear.

To register or for further information contact:

- Sensei Mickey Gelum: SenseiArashi@WarrenBudokan.com, (330) 219-0146
- Tuhan Holloway: tuhan@albokalisilat.org, (330) 301-6144